amending Recommendation ECB/2017/10 on common specifications for the exercise of some options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities in relation to less significant institutions (ECB/2025/26)

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 of 15 October 2013 conferring specific tasks on the European Central Bank concerning policies relating to the prudential supervision of credit institutions¹, and in particular Article 4(3) and Article 6(1) and (5)(c) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Recommendation ECB/2017/10 of the European Central Bank² (hereinafter the 'O&D Recommendation') establishes common specifications for the exercise of certain options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities (NCAs) in relation to less significant institutions. The O&D Recommendation was amended by Recommendation ECB/2022/13 of the European Central Bank³ to take account of legislative changes introduced since its adoption.
- (2) New options and discretions have since been introduced in Union law, and existing options and discretions have also since been amended or deleted, including options and discretions that are included in the O&D Recommendation. It is therefore appropriate to align the O&D Recommendation accordingly.
- (3) With regard to the option for a competent authority to decide that an institution is not to be considered a small and non-complex institution on the basis of an analysis of its size, interconnectedness, complexity or risk profile, the ECB considers it necessary to encourage a harmonised approach by setting out circumstances in which NCAs should assess whether a credit institution should not be considered a small and non-complex institution.
